son sept. 20 at Marshall field.

Coach Stage will put in some speedy work before the opening date, as he intends to plan the season on paper and get his notebook of plays assorted before the actual training begins.

Captain Orville Page yesterday notified his men that he would be at the Midway the first of this week to get the candisiates ready for the big doings. He is a fine shape and has had favorable reports from all of the candidates with the exception of Crawley, who is not expected to return.

THE FAMOUS GLORIO.

This speedy horse has world's records to his credit and is one of the fastest horses in the United States. He was brought here last spring, but did not en ter any of the races as the owner was holding him back for the big stake events. He was entered in the Buena Vista handicap Saturday and though one of a classy field, he won with apparent ease, and this, too, carrying 115 pounds, top weight. The purse was worth $300.

The loss of Crawley is the first bearish report the marcons have had, and in case the star halfback is lost to the team it will be enough to hold Stage's optimism down all season. Crawley and Worthwine were the only veteran backs for the 1908 team, and Crawley's absence would seriously cripple the team.

Captain Page is still uncertain whether he will play end agath this year or take Steffen's place at quarterback. The marcons think he is more likely to be seen at end, as Rogers is a clever general back of the line. However, if Page takes Steffen's position Rogers probably will go to half, with Medual a promising candidate for the place vacated by Iddings.

will go to half, with Menual a promising candidate for the place vacated by Iddings.

The maroons are predicting a firstclass defensive team, as the entire strength of the line will again be on hand this year, with the exception of Schommer at one end. From tackle to tackle, the veterans are Badenoch, center; Ehrhorn, and Hirschl, guards, and Kelley and Hoffman, tackles.

Starg will have three husky freshmen from last year's first year eleven in Gerend, Rademacher and Smith Rademacher is thought to be one of the best linemen Stagg has ever had, and he is likely to break into one of the tackles. It looks as though both the ends would have to be filled, and Kassulker and Sauer of the last year's freshman team are the strongest candidates for these places.

FOOTBALL IS DUE IN WEST TODAY

Chicago, Sept. 30 .- Football is due in the west today and college students will be out in force to see the doings in all of the camps. Every school will start actively to make use of two weeks of preparation for the first game on Oct. 2.

Reports from all of the conference colleges indicate something more than the average prospects. When the "big eight" teams get together today, Chicago and Minnesota will take their places of last fall as the foremest contenders for the western title. Wisconsin is distinctly with the leaders and Illinois is another contender this year. Indiana and Purdue both seem due for a winning season, while Northwestern is likewise cheerful and Iowa seems to be better than usual.

MANAGERS OF LEADING BASEBALL TEAMS AND THE GAME'S GREATEST BATTERS.

Judging by present indications, it be played in October. The Pirates have boss as if the Pittsburg and Detroit a commanding lead in the National league, and unless something unforeseen occars they surely will walk off with the banner. From now on until the season closes Pittsburg will tackle the eastern teams, Philadelphia and New York. The latter team will probably give the Pittsburgs the hardest tussle. In the American league Detroit will have to fight every inch of the way. The race in Ban Johnson's circuit is much closer than that in the older organization. The Tigers will finish the season on the road and will have to play their closest rivals. Philadelphia and Boston, both of which are playing first class ball. Manager Clarke is anxious to have Detroit cacture the banner in the American league, so that the basehall public will be given a chance to see Tyrus Cobb and the only Honus Wagner oppose each other on the diamond. It will give the fans a long looked for chance to size up these two great batters and base runners. Manager Jennings of Detroit recently sald that his team was better fitted to stand the strain of a grueling finish than were the Philadelphia and Boston teams and expects little difficulty in winning the banner.
